

ITF Taekwon-Do World Open E-Tournament 2020 October 3rd – 23rd

Introduction

Dear ITF Members!

For 6 months now, the Corona Pandemic has caused all ITF live events to be postponed or even cancelled. This is very unfortunate and partly tragic, not only because a lot of work has been destroyed, but also because some of it has resulted in considerable financial losses.

Fortunately, today's computer technology has made it possible to provide at least a partial service to our members. Zoom meetings or zoom seminars are part of this service.

A few weeks ago, the Chairman of the IT Committee (Master Harry Vones, 8th Dan / Germany) proposed to the ITF to offer an e -Tournament, having already gained experience with such a tournament himself.

For the ITF, the e - Tournament is a new challenge but at the same time an opportunity to fill the serious crisis of the Corona Pandemic with activities and to overcome.

After all important committees gave their opinion (the clear majority was in favour), the Board of Directors has also clearly decided to organise such a tournament.

Following an ITF call for applications, a total of seven countries have responded, expressing interest, four of which have withdrawn their applications and two others have not responded.

This means that ITF Deutschland will be the organising country for the e-Tournament 2020.

You will find the relevant information in the following announcement.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to wish everyone involved a good and successful outcome.

Kind regards.

Competition Rules

The event takes place under the ITF World Cup Rules and Regulations, including all appendices:
<https://itftkd.sport/rules/>

Additional specific rules for an E-Tournament:

These rules overrule the ITF World Cup Rules and Regulations, including all appendices for this tournament.

Colored Belt: 1 optional pattern from Yul Gok until Choong Moo but not higher than their own grade.

Black Belt: 2 designated patterns (created by Sportdata and published on the Sportdata website).

Team pattern: 1 optional pattern.

Pre-Arranged Sparring: 60-75 seconds between sijaek and goman as written in the WC-rules.

For each round the Sportdata system will create a new Match-Code (created by Sportdata and published on the Sportdata website) and competitors have to create and upload a new video with the new Match-Code for this round.

The competitor must show this Match-Code together with themselves in the video.

The competitor must put aside the Match-Code without leaving the video.

- The competitor cannot leave the video at any time.
- Also, the video cannot have any interruption or cut.

The competitor goes to their starting point, bows, performs the ready stance and start the pattern right away without any command.

In case of 2 patterns (Black Belts): Maximum 10 seconds time between the 2 patterns (from the final ready stance of the 1st pattern until starting of the 2nd pattern).

After performing the pattern (or the 2nd pattern in case of black belts), competitors will return to ready stance, and then they will bow also without any command.

Competitors must mark the starting point on the ground.

Competitors must be full facing to the camera, at the moment they start to perform their pattern.

At no time may the competitor have less than 25% of the height of the video screen.

The video camera must stay on a fixed spot and cannot be moved. Zooming or rotating on spot are allowed.

For each foot and each tool in each movement which are out of the video the Umpires will deduct 0.2 points.

In case that someone cannot create a video in a sports hall, the video can be made on any other place.

If a competitor or competitors performed their pattern or sequence on a grass surface so high that stepping could not be properly seen and thus the foot position could not also be seen, Umpires should deduct 0.2 points for each movement not seen.

The video should not bigger than 100 MB.

In case of not uploading a valid video in time, competitors will lose the match.

Any other exceptions to the rules will be mentioned in the coaches meeting.
